KUDOS

Not only is your group comprised of gifted musicians, you are all truly wonderful entertainers."

Michele Gilmour, "Concerts by the Sea,"
Oxnard CA

"Every aspect of our collaboration from start to finish was highly professional, as well as the band's presence on stage."

Candy Drake, Yucca Valley [CA] Summer Music
Festival

"Not only did you sell the place out, we feel you were among the most entertaining acts we have provided to our audiences in some time."

Tim Day – San Diego Folk Heritage Society

In the great tradition of the folk groups of the 60s, The Folk Collection entertains with its own unique blend and sound, and with a repertoire that is familiar to audiences of all ages. Tony Unger, Ed Labowitz and Mike Sirota, along with bass man Bob Packham, sing songs of the 60s and early 70s era, reflecting their love of the story songs and three part harmonies of that acoustic era.

The Folk Collection's shows are family friendly and are for a multi-generational audience. Even some teen-agers, who have attended with parents or grandparents, come away smiling and humming tunes they just heard and sang along with at the show.

From "Blowin' in the Wind," "This Land is Your Land," "City of New Orleans," to John Denver classics, The Folk Collection's shows are nostalgic and entertaining, combining a high level of musical professionalism with family-friendly humor.

It's O.K. to sing along...most people do!
