

KAREN LUSCHAR

BROADWAY, 40'S, AND STANDARDS

KUDOS

A unbelievably dynamic performer with energy that won't stop!

Ron Biancardi,
Program Director, Wilsonart International

Your name kept coming up again and again when we polled people on who they enjoyed most last summer. Both "Sinatra" and "Singing for Victory" were big hits as you could tell from the standing ovations.

Robin Zaremski,
Director, Musikfest, Bethlehem, PA

You had the audience in the palm of your hand. What a wonderful show!

Harvard Community Theatre, Harvard, MA

I heard nothing but praise from our enthusiastic capacity crowd. "Singing For Victory" had everything that makes a program successful—nostalgia, energy, audience connection, great musicianship and a sing-a-long!

Denise Laude, Program Director, Mahwah Library Performing Arts Series, NJ

What an incredible, moving program you presented and what a thrill to be in your audience! You have a fabulous way of connecting with people, an incredible stage presence, and your deep and heartfelt love for this time and music shows in every syllable you sing. You are wonderful!

Jan Smith, Program Director,
Bridgewater JCC, NJ

Karen Luschar is a powerful vocal artist winning numerous accolades by weaving classic Broadway songs and timeless standards into dynamic and heartwarming nostalgic theatrical performances. This acclaimed Broadway performer, who acts, sings and dances, seamlessly incorporates these elements into her shows with sparkling razz-ma-tazz and style. From touching emotion to impeccable comic timing, her strong rapport with, and incorporation of, the audience creates an unforgettable and delightful concert.

An incredibly vast repertoire from the treasured 1940's to the rich tapestry of Broadway and more modern favorites are highlighted in the seven exciting shows Karen presents surrounding WWII, Judy Garland, Broadway, Sinatra, Travel, Love, and the Holidays. The concerts are creatively tied together with musings about each theme.

The shows are:

Singing For Victory—Songs of WWII, Chasing Rainbows—Songs of Judy Garland, A Lullaby of Broadway, Sinatra—Time After Time, Let's Get Away From It All, This Thing Called Love, Mistletoe and Holly

Concerts can be geared toward the needs of the venue whether it's the lush sounds of a full pops orchestra or the Big Band Era using

5-10 musicians. If you are looking for a more intimate feeling, the shows retain their energy and drive with the engaging duo of vocals and piano accompaniment.

With the exception of Alaska, Karen's work has been seen in every state at performing arts venues, festivals, WWII Veterans activities, benefits, and corporate events working with such companies as Frito-Lay, Dr. Pepper, Wilsonart, The American Bible Society, B.F. Goodrich, J.C. Penney and the Texas Credit Union. Aside from Karen's concert work, her performing background encompasses Broadway, Off-Broadway, National Tours, Las Vegas, Regional Theatres, Shakespeare in the Park, Cruise Ships, TV, Film, Industrials, Commercials, Jingles, and even the U.S. Capitol. She has shared the stage with such show business luminaries as Richard Harris, Robert Goulet, Sandy Duncan, Frank Gorshin, and Christopher Hewitt.

Karen felt it important her debut CD should be Singing For Victory—Songs of WWII which will soon be released on the 2T Label. It stems from her love of the 1940's and appreciation of the efforts of The Greatest Generation.

Boundless energy, vocal range, and the ability to express the essence of each song is what makes audiences call Karen Luschar an 'outstanding entertainer'.
